AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' Complaint fails to state a cause of action on which relief may be granted because, among other reasons, the November 13, 2013 trusteeship is presumptively valid under 29 U.S.C. § 464(c) and Plaintiffs have failed to allege facts showing that the trusteeship was not established or maintained in good faith for a purpose allowable under 29 U.S.C. § 462.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' Complaint fails to state a cause of action on which relief may be granted because, among other reasons, Defendants have established and administered the trusteeship over Local 28 in accordance with the International Constitution, in good faith, and for the purposes set forth in 29 U.S.C. § 462.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' Complaint fails to state a cause of action on which relief may be granted because, among other reasons, even if Plaintiffs could show that Defendants had the alleged retaliatory motives claimed in the Complaint – which allegations Defendants deny –, Defendants had valid and legitimate reasons for imposing the trusteeship over Local 28.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The equitable relief sought by Plaintiffs is barred by the doctrine of laches because Plaintiffs waited for over four and a half months before seeking such relief in this action.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claim that a trusteeship over Local 28 was in effect during the period May 7, 2012 through November 12, 2013, or any portion thereof, is barred by laches and/or by the applicable statute of limitations.

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claim that a trusteeship over Local 28 was in effect during the period May 7, 2012 through November 12, 2013, or any portion thereof, is waived and barred because Plaintiffs acquiesced in actions taken by SMART during that period of time.

SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs are estopped from claiming that a trusteeship over Local 28 was in effect during the period May 7, 2012 through November 12, 2013, or any portion thereof.

EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' second cause of action, to the extent it alleges an independent violation of the International Constitution, is barred for failure to exhaust internal union remedies.

NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' second cause of action, to the extent it alleges an independent violation of the International Constitution, is barred because Section 301 of the Labor-Management Relations Act, 29 U.S.C. § 301, provides the exclusive judicial means of remedying violations of the International Constitution.

TENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claim to equitable relief is barred by the doctrine of unclean hands.

ELEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' Complaint is vague and uncertain, and as such does not identify or describe the underlying facts in sufficient detail for Defendants to determine fully what defenses to liability may exist. Defendants therefore specifically reserve their rights to supplement or modify these affirmative defenses as they acquire additional information regarding Plaintiffs' allegations, through discovery or otherwise.

TWELFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

As to Plaintiffs' demand for a jury trial, Defendants answer that Plaintiffs are not entitled to a jury trial on any of their claims.

WHEREFORE, Defendants demand a judgment dismissing Plaintiffs' Complaint and awarding Defendants their attorneys' fees and costs and such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.
